Lights, Camera, Action: Mastering Video for Real Estate Success

1 credit hour | #25269-RECE

Videos are one of the most successful and underused marketing strategies in today's digital world. In this class, real estate agents are given ideas on what to record, tips on creating the perfect video, and where to promote the video to get the most views.

First-Time Homebuyers - Mapping a Path to Ownership

1 credit hour | #25318-RECE

Enhance your expertise in guiding first-time homebuyers through the complex homeownership process. The course will cover effective marketing strategies to attract first-time homebuyers, understanding first-time buyer programs, financing options, and common challenges that new buyers face, along with key insights to confidently support new buyers in choosing between new construction and resale homes.
