KARIS

Karis is a 565-acre new-home community nestled in Crowley, Texas, south of downtown Fort Worth, with small town charm and easy access to employment, restaurants, entertainment, and retail. Developed by the award-winning developer Nehemiah Company, Karis residents will enjoy a home where life's pace is a little slower, roots run a little deeper and wings stretch a little wider.

Pricing, availability and information subject to change without notice.
