

PECAN SQUARESM

Pecan Square named Master-Planned and People's Choice Community of the Year!

Hillwood Communities, the award-winning real estate developer based in Dallas, was honored with several awards from the Dallas Builders Association recognizing Pecan Square in Northlake, Texas, including Master-Planned Community of the Year for its outstanding product diversity, unique amenities, robust technology offerings, planned on-site schools, and year-round lifestyle program that connects neighbors and the surrounding area to create a true sense of community. Pecan Square was also voted People's Choice Community of the Year, based on a survey of the community's current residents, as well as Best Welcome Center, Best Community Amenity, Best Lifestyle Program and Best Lifestyle Director of the Year.

"These awards continue to underscore our commitment to excellence and the tireless work of our team in creating communities that last for generations."
Fred Balda – President, Hillwood Communities
